

PRESS RELEASE

New C&A store in shopping centre 't Loon has opened

Hoofddorp, 1 September 2014 –NSI N.V. (NSI) announced that another important milestone in the rebuilding of shopping centre 't Loon has been realized. Today, the newly built part of the C&A store has opened its doors, after that the construction (2,500 sqm) was delivered according to schedule in June 2014. In the coming months, the existing part of the store will be renovated and subsequently merged with the new part, resulting in a total area of 4,000 sqm. After the completion of the renovation by year end 2014, C&A will do the fitting out on the basis of its new store concept. The opening of the all-new C&A store is expected to take place in early March 2015.

Alica van der Duin, Directeur Retail van NSI licht toe: “We are very proud on the new construction works. With the rebuilding, we had the intention to put 't Loon back on the map. The beautiful new facade of the new C&A store and the new entrance of the shopping center absolutely deliver on that ambition. Together with C&A and all other retailers in 't Loon we work with great dedication and enthusiasm to the completion of the rebuilding of it Loon and the 'grande opening' of the all-new C&A store in the spring of 2015.”
