

NSI opens HNK The Hague

- 6th HNK property in roll out to nationwide network-

HOOFDORP, 6 November 2014 – NSI N.V. (“NSI”) officially opened its 6th HNK property yesterday. HNK stand for “Het Nieuwe Kantoor” (The New Office). HNK anticipates the growing demand for full service and flexible office concepts in the Dutch office market. This concept is being rolled out nationwide. The first tenants have moved in already.

HNK offers an inspiring environment with stylish workstations, office space, meeting facilities, catering and a wide range of amenities. HNK provides various propositions, offering flexibility in space, lease term and services.

Johan Buijs (CEO NSI), Hans Biesheuvel (initiator ONL voor Ondernemers)

Hans Biesheuvel, former chairman of MKB Nederland and initiator of ‘ONL voor Ondernemers’ (an association for entrepreneurs), did the opening ceremony.

Hans Biesheuvel: “With ‘ONL voor Ondernemers’ we aim to contribute actively to a better business climate. Amongst other through joining forces. The HNK concept supports that philosophy. HNK provides an inspiring environment to run your business, surrounded by other entrepreneurs with whom you can spar and collaborate. The atmosphere and setting in HNK facilitates entrepreneurs to seek each others’ strength.”

HNK The Hague is located at business park Forepark and the residential area Leidschenveen. The property (approx. 15,000 sqm) is strategically located close to the highway A4. There are sufficient parking facilities and the location is also easy accessible by public transport.

Besides ‘custom made offices’ (office space with a flexible floorplate and contract duration), HNK The Hague offers managed offices (fully equipped offices), workstations, meeting rooms and a Grand Café. The first letting contracts for HNK The Hague have already been signed.
