

PRESS RELEASE

Dirk Kuyt Foundation in HNK Rotterdam

Rotterdam, 7 April 2014 – NSI N.V. (“NSI”) has signed a lease agreement with the Dirk Kuyt Foundation (DKF) for a managed office in HNK Rotterdam. HNK stands for ‘Het Nieuwe Kantoor’ (‘The New Office’); the full service, flexible office concept of NSI. HNK is the ultimate (net)work location for flex workers, start-ups, established companies and multinationals.

On 7 April, Dirk Kuyt officially opened the new office of his foundation, under attendance of Antoinette Laan, Councillor of Sport & Recreation, Arts and Culture in Rotterdam, co-tenants and press. The Dirk Kuyt Foundation (DKF) supports and (co-) organises sports events for people with disabilities. HNK supports initiatives that encourage social solidarity.

About NSI

NSI aims to create a sustainable return for private and institutional investors by investing in high quality offices and retail locations that offer tenants suitable business accommodation, allowing them to run their business successfully. NSI invests in offices and retail in high-quality locations in the Netherlands and Belgium. NSI is a publicly listed closed-end real estate investment company with a variable capital, and post-merger manages invested assets of around EUR 1,8 billion. NSI aims to roll out the HNK concept to 10-15% of the portfolio of NSI. In addition to the HNK establishment in Rotterdam, HNK has offices in Hoofddorp, Utrecht, Amsterdam and soon in Groningen. During the year there is also established in The Hague and Apeldoorn.
